1. Preface

“Processes and procedures are never ends in themselves, but should always be used as a means of bringing about better outcomes for children. No guidance can, or should attempt to offer a detailed prescription for working with each child and family. Work with children and families where there are concerns about a child’s welfare is sensitive and difficult. Good practice calls for effective cooperation between different agencies and professionals: sensitive work with parents and carers in the best interests of the child; and the careful exercise of professional judgement and critical analysis of the available information”.

2. Statement of Intent

The City of Hull Amateur Boxing Club recognises that protecting and safeguarding children and young people is a shared responsibility and depends upon effective joint working between agencies and professionals that have different roles and expertise. Individual children and young people, especially some of the most vulnerable children and those at greater risk of social exclusion, will need coordinated help from health, education and children's social care services. The voluntary sector and other agencies also have an important role in protecting and safeguarding children.

The City of Hull Amateur Boxing Club has a responsibility to protect and safeguard the welfare of children and young people they come into contact with. The need for guidelines and procedures is important to ensure that this is done with understanding and clarity.

The City of Hull Amateur Boxing Club will aim to protect and safeguard children and young people by having the following steps in place:

1. All staff, volunteers, coaches and assistants will be selected carefully, trained and supervised following acceptable references from employer or previous employer and an independent referee
2. All staff, volunteers, coaches and assistants will receive an enhanced CRB and any positive reports that come back will result in the recruitment application being rejected
3. To manage all cases and reports made and even those of suspicion will be investigated, reported and held on file. Where outside authorities / agencies are involved we will adopt their recommended course of action
4. No member of staff, volunteer, coach or assistant will be given admittance to the centre without an enhanced CRB check returned
5. All staff will be made aware of possible indicators of child abuse through training both internal and that held by the National Governing Bodies
6. All staff, volunteers, coaches and assistants will be made aware of their child safeguarding responsibilities by holding an induction and refreshers and to share any concerns they have about a child with the City of Hull Sport & Community Welfare Officer Mrs Wendy Gibbons (amanda.ali@cityofhullabc.com). If a member of staff, volunteer, Coach or Assistant feels that their concern is not being taken seriously they have the right to share this with Social Services or Police if this is appropriate.
7. Review this Child Protection Policy & Procedure document annually and update in line with national and local policy developments. This will be working in partnership with the various national governing bodies (e.g. Amateur Boxing Association of England) and the Children Act 2004, also the East Riding Safeguarding Children Board.

City of Hull Amateur Boxing Club

8. Ensuring all Staff, Volunteers, Coaches and Assistants attend appropriate Local Safeguarding Children Board (LSCB) Child Protection Training through the National Governing Bodies
9. We have a clear contact information on the clubs notice board, which will clearly state the Welfare Officers name and contact details and how to make a complaint as well as how escalate a concern should the complainant feel dissatisfied or uncomfortable to raise the concern with the Welfare Officer named
10. City of Hull Amateur Boxing Club will assess the risk that children and young people may encounter and take steps to minimise and manage incidents
11. City of Hull Amateur Boxing Club will inform parents, carers, children and Young People know how to report concerns about a child, young person, staff member, coach, volunteer or assistant or complain about anything they are not happy about. This will be via the communications board located in the centre as well as a welcome pack which will be issued to all members upon joining the club.
12. Giving children, young people, parents and carers information about what the City of Hull Amateur Boxing Club does and what you can expect. This will be through a hand out welcome pack upon joining the club as well as the through the various policy statements we as a club enforce

3. National & Local Guide

This Child Protection policy and procedure should be read in conjunction with the Local Safeguarding Children Board (LSCB) Guidelines and procedures. In accordance with the Children Act 2004 it is a statutory responsibility for key agencies coming in to contact with children and young people, to make arrangements to ensure that in discharging their functions, they have regard to the need to safeguard and promote the welfare of children (Section 11, Children Act 2004). Where private or voluntary organisations come into contact with or offer services to children they should as a matter of good practice take account of this guidance and follow it as far as possible.

The following national guidance should also be referred to.

4. Safeguarding & Promoting Welfare & Child Protection

4.1 Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined as:

- Protecting children from maltreatment
- Preventing impairment of children's health or development;
- Ensuring that children are growing up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care;
- Undertaking that role so as to enable those children to have optimum life chances and to enter adulthood successfully

4.2 Child Protection

Child protection is a part of safeguarding and promoting welfare. This refers to the activity which is undertaken to protect specific children who are suffering or are at risk of suffering significant harm. Effective child protection is essential to safeguard and promote the welfare of children. However all agencies should aim to proactively safeguard and promote the welfare of children so that the need for action to protect from harm is reduced.

4.3 Children in Need

Children who are defined as 'in need', under section 17 of the Children Act 1989, are those whose vulnerability is such that they are unlikely to reach or maintain a satisfactory level of health or development, or their health or development will be significantly impaired, without the provision of services. This includes those children with a disability.

4.4 Significant Harm

Some children are in need because they are suffering or likely to suffer significant harm. The concept of significant harm is the threshold that justifies compulsory intervention in family life in the best interests of the child, and gives the Local Authority a duty to make enquiries to decide whether they should take action to safeguard or promote the welfare of a child who is suffering, or likely to suffer, significant harm.

5. Who Abuses Children

Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting; by those known to them or, more rarely, by a stranger. They may be abused by an adult or adults or another child or children.

6. What is Abuse and Neglect?

Abuse and neglect are forms of maltreatment of a child or young person. Child refers to anyone under the age of 18. Somebody may abuse or neglect a child by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm.

- PHYSICAL ABUSE:

Physical abuse may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scolding, drowning, suffocating, or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in child.

- EMOTIONAL ABUSE:

Emotional abuse is the persistent emotional maltreatment of a child such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve conveying to children that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children. These may include interactions that are beyond a child's developmental capability, as well as overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning, or preventing the child participating in normal social interaction. It may involve seeing or hearing the ill-treatment of another. It may involve serious bullying causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploration or corruption of children.

Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, though it may occur alone.

- SEXUAL ABUSE:

Sexual abuse involves forcing or enticing child or young person to take part in sexual activities, including prostitution, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including penetrative (e.g. rape, buggery or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts.

They may include non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of, pornographic material or watching sexual activities, or engaging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways.

- NEGLECT

Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and / or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development. Neglect may occur during pregnancy as a result of maternal substance abuse. Once a child is born, neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to provide adequate food and clothing, shelter including exclusion from home or abandonment, failing to protect a child from physical and emotional harm or danger, failure to ensure adequate supervision including the use of inadequate care-takers, or the failure to ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment. It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.

City of Hull Amateur Boxing Club

This is not an exhaustive list and it must be recognised that it is not the role of staff / volunteers to make an assessment of whether children or young people have suffered harm. Staff / volunteers / child protection co-ordinator do have a duty to report any concerns about harm in accordance with the Local Safeguarding Children Board, Guidelines & Procedures.

7. Recognition of harm

The harm or possible harm of a child may come to your attention in a number of possible ways;

1. Information given by the child, his / her friends, a family member or close associate.
2. The child's behaviour may become different from the usual, be significantly different from the behaviour of their peers, be bizarre or unusual or may involve 'acting out' a harmful situation in play.
3. An injury which arouses suspicion because:
  - It does not make sense when compared with the explanation given.
  - The explanations differ depending on who is giving them (e.g. differing explanations from the parent / carer and child).
  - The child appears anxious and evasive when asked about the injury.
4. Suspicion being raised when a number of factors occur over time, for example, the child fails to progress and thrive in contrast to his / her peers.
5. Contact with individuals who pose a 'risk to children' (Guidance on Offences Against Children', Home Office Circular 16/2005). This replaces the term 'Schedule One Offender' and relates to an individual that has been identified as presenting a risk or potential risk of harm to children. This can be someone who has been convicted of an offence listed in the Schedule One of the Children and Young Person's Act 1933 (Sexual Offences Act 2003), or someone who has been identified as continuing to present a risk to children.
6. The parent's behaviour before the birth of a child may indicate the likelihood of significant harm to an unborn child, for example substance misuse, previous children removed from their carers.
7. Substance misuse – the potential for a child to be harmed as a result of excessive use of alcohol, illegal and controlled drugs, solvents or related substances may occur during a young person's life. The use of drugs or other substances by parents or carers does not in itself indicate child neglect or abuse, and there is no assumption that a child living in such circumstances will automatically be considered under the child protection procedures. It is important to assess how parental substance use impacts upon the children or young people in the family.

City of Hull Amateur Boxing Club

8. Mental Health – Mental illness in a parent or carer does not necessarily have an adverse affect on the child or young person but it is important to assess its implications for any children involved in the family. The adverse affects of parental mental illness on the child are less likely when parental problems are mild, last for a short period of time, are not associated with family disharmony, and where there is another parent or family member who can respond to the child’s needs and offer protection. Where mental illness is accompanied by problem alcohol use, domestic violence or associated with poverty and social isolation, children are particularly vulnerable.

9. Domestic Violence – Children and young people can suffer directly and indirectly if they live in a household where there is domestic violence. It is likely to have a damaging effect on the health and development of children. The amendment made in section 120 of the Adoption and Children Act 2002 to the Children Act 1989 clarifies the meaning of harm to include , for example, impairment suffered from seeing or hearing the ill-treatment of another. This can include children witnessing violence in the home. Domestic violence as an impact in a number of way:
  - It can pose a threat to the physical well being of an unborn child, if a mother is kicked or punched.
  - Children may suffer injuries as a result of being caught up in violent episodes.
  - Children become distressed by witnessing the physical and emotional suffering of a parent.
  - The physical and psychological abuse suffered by the adult victim can have a negative impact upon their ability to look after their children.
  - The impact of domestic violence is exacerbated when the violence is combined with problematic alcohol or drug use.
  - People working with children should also be alert to the frequent inter-relationship between domestic violence and the abuse and neglect of children.

10. Bullying – This can be defined as deliberately hurtful behaviour, usually repeated over a period of time, where it is difficult for those bullied to defend themselves. It can take many forms, but the three main types are physical (e.g. hitting, kicking, theft), verbal (e.g. racist or homophobic remarks, threats, name calling) and emotional (e.g. isolating and individual from activities and social acceptance of their peer group). The damage inflicted by bullying can be underestimated. It can cause considerable distress, to the extent that it can affect health and development and at the extreme significant harm.

8. Managing Disclosures of Abuse

If a child discloses abuse it is important that, as far as possible, the following basic principles are adhered to:

- Listen to what the child has to say with an open mind
- Do not ask probing or leading questions designed to get the child to reveal more
- Never stop a child who is freely recalling significant events
- Make note of the discussion, taking care to record the timing, setting and people present, as well as what was said
- Never promise the child that what they have told you can be kept a secret. Explain that you have a responsibility to report what the child has said to someone else.
- THE CHILD PROTECTION CO-ORDINATOR MUST BE INFORMED IMMEDIATELY.

9. The Role of the Child Protection Co-ordinator / Welfare Officer

Where there are concerns about the welfare of any child or young person all staff / volunteers have a duty to share those concerns with the designated Child Protection Co-ordinator / Welfare Officer.

The Child Protection Co-ordinator / Welfare Officer is responsible for:

- Monitoring and recording concerns about the well being of a child or young person
- Making referral to the local Authority Children's Services
- Liaising with other agencies
- Arranging training for staff / volunteers

The Child Protection Co-ordinator / Welfare Officer, after receiving a referral, will act on behalf of the City of Hull Amateur Boxing Club in referring concerns or allegations of harm to Local Authority Children's Social Care or the Police Public / Family Protection Unit.

If the Child Protection Co-ordinator / Welfare Officer is in any doubt about making a referral it is important to note that advice can be sought from Local Authority Children's Social Care. The name of the child and family should be kept confidential at this stage and will be requested if the enquiry proceeds to a referral.

The Child Protection Co-ordinator / Welfare Officer may share limited information on a need to know basis amongst staff / management but respecting the need for confidentiality.

It is not the role of the Child Protection Co-ordinator / Welfare Officer to undertake an investigation into the concerns or allegation of harm. It is the role the Child Protection Co-ordinator / Welfare Officer to collate and clarify details of the concern or allegation and to provide this information to the Local Authority Central Duty Team, or Family Resource Centre if Children's Social Care is already involved, whose duty it is to make enquiries in accordance with section 47 of the Children Act 1989.

10. Seeking Consent for a Referral

Working Together to Safeguard Children (HM Government 2006) states that professionals should seek in general to discuss any concerns with the family (including the child where appropriate) and where possible seek their agreement to making referrals to the Local Authority Central Duty Team. This should only be done where such discussion and agreement seeking will not place the child at an increased risk of significant harm.

So in general where concerns about a child relate to Section 17 children 'in need' (Children Act 1989) consent should be sought from the parents, carer or children where appropriate prior to a referral being made to the Local Authority Child Care Team.

It should be noted that parents, carers or child may not agree to information being shared, but this should not prevent referrals where child protection concerns persist. The reasons for dispensing with consent from the parents, carer or child should be clearly recorded.

In cases where an allegation has been made against a family member living in the same household as the child and it is your view that discussing the matter with the parent would place the child at risk of harm, or where discussing it may place a member of staff / volunteer at risk, consent does not have to be sought prior to the referral being made.

If you are unsure about whether to seek parental consent prior to a referral being made then seek advice from the duty social worker at the relevant Local Authority Family Resource Team.
